Lost Yacht Limps In

BRISBANE, Australia (Reuters) — The luxury yacht Shemara, feared lost in the wake of a cyclone, sailed into Bowen harbor 700 miles from here yesterday.

The Shemara, which left the French Riviera last December for a world cruise, was battered by waves and 116-mile-an-hour winds for four days.

Burned Boy Christened

VANCOUVER (CP) — He was too delirious with shock and the pain of burns that cover his body to know it, but little Alfred Grey was christened Tuesday.

Rev. Wesley R. B. Nixon performed the ceremony over the hospital bed where the 12-year-old boy has lain since he climbed a tower Saturday and touched a 60,000-volt high tension wire.

Severe burns cover 80 per cent of his body. The slightest infection could be fatal.

Mr. Grey, who with his wife Patricia keeps a round-the-clock vigil over the boy, took time out Tuesday to visit a girl in the same hospital.

Carol Chapman, 20, has been there since October, 1957, when she suffered terrible burns as her party dress caught fire.

GEN. A. G. L. McNAUGHTON

Columbia Parley Ends

NEW YORK (CP)—The International Joint Commission has ended a two-day meeting called to discuss the sharing of downstream benefits of the Columbia River between Canada and the U.S.

The meeting followed a Jan. 29 statement by the U.S. government recognizing the Canadian claim to downstream benefits on the river which rises in the British Columbia interior and flows to the sea at Seattle.

Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton represented Canada.

A statement said the downstream benefits prospects of power developments and flood control were discussed in principle and it was agreed that these questions would be given further consideration in detail at a series of subsequent meetings.

Reports will be presented to the commission at its meeting in Chicago already scheduled to commence on Monday, March 16.

800 Whites Boycott Integrated School

FRONT ROYAL, Va. (UPI) —Twenty-two Negroes walked into a $1,000,000 high school boycotted by its white students yesterday in the fourth case of lowering color bans in Virginia public schools.

None of the more than 800 white students at Warren County High showed up for the first day of classes at the school since it closed last Sept. 12 to prevent it from complying with federal court integration orders.
